Who Can Participate

Secondary Division Members, Postsecondary/Collegiate Division Members, and Alumni Members.

First Year Eligibility

For the first year, eligible HOSA delegates will be eligible to pre-register for a maximum of two tests and will be slotted, space available. Since space is limited at Disney's Coronado Springs Resort, priority will be:

- Priority #1: Voting Delegates
- Priority #2: Executive Council Candidates
- Priority #3: HOSA University Delegates
- Priority #4: Open Delegates (Open delegates are defined as not participating in any HOSA-sponsored activities.)
- Priority #5: Competitive Event Delegates

How to Register

Delegates will pre-register for the Academic Testing Center and indicate one or two preferred choices for testing. The registration process occurs in the HOSA Conference Management System when you register for the 2019 International Leadership Conference. Delegates will receive an Academic Testing Center Schedule prior to the ILC. If space is available at testing sessions, HOSA delegates may register on-site for additional subjects in addition to the two pre-registered tests.

Availability

The Academic Testing Center will provide a testing environment for 250 HOSA members each session for a 60-minute period for four days for a total of 5,750 test-takers. Seating and test time will be assigned. Go to the El Paso Registration Desk to register for open seats on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.
